

Contents

- 6 The Power of Line: Preface
Marzia Faietti and Gerhard Wolf
- 10 Graphism and Flatness: The Line as Mediator between Time and Space,
Intuition and Concept
Sybille Krämer

NATURE AND LINE

- 20 The Line and Its Double Nature in Early Modern Graphic Arts
Robert Felfe
- 38 Ruskin and the Reality of the Line
Jan von Brevern

THEORIES, LEARNING, AND DIDACTIC EXPERIENCES

- 52 Discipline as Emotion: Drawing Courses and Ideology in Early Twentieth-Century Germany and Austria
Nicola Suthor
- 70 Grapheme, Pictogram, Image, and Back: Walter Crane, a Return to Picture-
Writing
Francesca Tancini

LINE: SPACE AND TRACE

- 86 Transitioning Lines: Peter Eisenman's House III between Drawing and Building
Martin Søberg
- 96 The Sacred Footprint, Examined from Comparative Perspectives
Akira Akiyama

CALLIGRAPHY, PAINTING, AND DANCE IN CHINA AND JAPAN

- 106 The Chinese Literati's View of Calligraphy and Painting (書画 shuhua):
A Reconsideration of the Concept of Art in China and Japan
Shigetoshi Osano
- 118 The Line between Calligraphy and Painting: A View from Post-War Japan
Eugenia Bogdanova-Kummer
- 128 Curving Lines and Morphing Marks: On the Problems of Comparing Chinese Ink-Brush Writing with Dancing
Alexander Schwan

TRANSFORMING ARABIC LETTERS AND ISLAMIC LINES

- 144 From Letter to Line: Artistic Experiments with Pseudo-Script in Late Medieval Italian Painting, Preliminary Remarks
Vera-Simone Schulz
- 162 From Matisse to Morellet: What French Artists Owe to the Islamic Line
Thierry Dufrêne
- 172 The Aesthetics of the Written Word in Tunisian Art: Calligraphic Line,
Mystical Sign, and Automatic Writing (1960–2014)
Alia Nakhli

ELOQUENT SIGNS AND DOODLES

- 186 The Primacy of the Line over the Word in Leonardo, Mantegna, and Parmigianino
Marzia Faietti
- 206 The Power of Lines: Traces and Threads
Gerhard Wolf

APPENDIX

- 214 Contributors Index of Names and Places